VTB Arena is an example of an indoor ice hockey arena.

This system is close to the regular three-man system except for a few procedure changes.

Goaltenders wear specialized goalie skates (these skates are built more for move) Tj T* BT / pads (there are size restrictions in certain leagues), blocking glove, catching glove, a chest protector, a goalie mask, and a large jersey.

In current IIHF women's competition, body checking is either a minor or majo r penalty, decided at the referee's discretion.[77]
